KING NICHOLAS AT HEAD OF COHORTS

Montenegro Breaks with Austria and Fighting Resumes all Along the Front

(By Associated Press.)
ROME, Jan. 20.—Fighting between Austria and Montenegro has been resumed, so Montenegro has officially notified Italy. Montenegro's decision was communicated in a note to the effect that King Nicholas and his government had rejected all the terms offered by Austria and that fighting has been resumed along the entire front. Nicholas remains with the army to organize the defense of his country.

SERVE TERMS FOR CONSPIRACY CHARGE

(By Associated Press.)
LEVENWORTH, Kan., Jan. 20.—With the release from the United States penitentiary here on February 7, next, of Alexander Aczell, former street inspector of Terre Haute, Ind., Edward Holler, former chief of police, Charles Houghton, city hall custodian, Joseph O'Mara and George Sovern, nine of the men convicted in the election conspiracy cases will have satisfied the government for their offenses. Four of the offenders were paroled on December 21. Twelve remain in prison.
Avzell, Holler, Houghton, O'Mara and Sovern were sentenced to one year and a day each. With sixteen other men convicted in the same cases they came here on April 19, 1915. The five have served full time with the usual allowance off for good behavior.

LARRY HOGUE MAY DIE

Larry Hogue, the veteran prospector, who underwent amputation of the left leg just below the knee at the county hospital, may not recover. His age is advanced and his physical condition is not good, but he withstood the shock very well. The gangrene, however, is in his blood and infection has started in the stump. He is in no immediate danger, but there are little hopes held out for his complete recovery.

DEMOCRATS TO MEET

(By Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, Jan. 20.—W. F. McCombs, chairman of the Democratic national committee, announced today he had called a meeting of the committee on arrangements for February 8 at the Hotel Jefferson in St. Louis. The committee will formulate plans for the national convention, which opens in St. Louis on June 14.

SOCIALISTS SUICIDES

(By Associated Press.)
OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Jan. 20.—J. O. Welday, state chairman of the Socialist party, committed suicide by shooting today in his room in a hotel. He left a note saying he feared madness. He was to have been married tonight.

DAMAGE BY STORM A MILLION DOLLARS

LOS ANGELES EXPECTS TO HAVE COMMUNICATION WITH SAN DIEGO MONDAY

(By Associated Press.)
SAN DIEGO, Jan. 20.—The estimated storm damage in San Diego city and county is at least a million dollars. Two lives were lost in this vicinity. Twenty highway bridges were washed out and stretches of roadbed destroyed. Traffic with Los Angeles by railroad is expected to be resumed by Monday at the earliest. Hundreds of families in the Little Landers colony, in San Ysidro Valley, are homeless and efforts are being made to send them food. In the back country the rainfall for the storm was 15.19 inches. Conditions are improving. It is believed the storm has passed.

BASKETBALL GAME POSTPONED TILL 4TH

LAS VEGAS GIRLS WILL PLAY RETURN MATCH WITH TONOPAH

The girls' basketball game with Las Vegas which was to have been played in Tonopah on January 21st has been postponed to February 4th. It is understood that Las Vegas has been busy practicing in order to prepare to reverse the score of the game played in Las Vegas in December in which Tonopah came off victorious. However, the Tonopah girls feel that with the training and practice they have had since the Vegas game they can still uphold the honor of their school. They will welcome the Vegas girls and make every effort to see that the visitors have the time of their lives.

On February 11th Reno comes to Tonopah to match its skill with that of the Tonopah girls. If possible games with Reno will be arranged for the evenings of both February 10 and 11.

RELIEF FORCE NEAR BESIEGED BRITISHERS

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, Jan. 20.—General Aylmer's relief force of British troops is in close touch with the Turkish positions miles from Kut-el-Amara, in Mesopotamia, where the British are surrounded by the Turks.

BRITISH STEAMER SUNK

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, Jan. 20.—The steamer Marere has been sunk. Her crew was rescued. Marere, of 6,443 tons gross, was owned in London. She was 50 feet long and was built in Belfast in 1902.

PRISONERS ESCAPE

(By Associated Press.)
LITTLE ROCK, Jan. 20.—Between 20 and 40 convicts escaped from the Arkansas penitentiary farm at Cummins, according to reports. Guards are searching the hills and brush.

SMITH SPEAKS PLAINLY

Decries Interference with Trade with Neutral Nations

Rights of Citizens of the United States are Recklessly Disregarded

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—England's interference with neutral trade was the subject of a vigorous speech today by Senator Hoke Smith, who pleaded for action to prevent England from advancing her own trade at the expense of the United States while attempting to destroy Germany commercially. He asserted that the rights of citizens of the United States and other neutral nations are being recklessly disregarded. He emphasized what he denounced as Great Britain's treatment of America's cotton trade. He asked: "Shall we continue to furnish England with what she is compelled to obtain from the United States while the commercial rights of the citizens of this country are trampled under foot?"

ADMINISTRATION EARNS CONTEMPT OF ALL MEXICANS

Murders the Fruit of Policy

SHARP EXCORIATION

CONGRESSMAN MONDELL SAYS THAT THE PRESIDENT HAS NOT EARNED RESPECT OF REPUBLIC SOUTHWARD

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—The Santa Ysabel murders were declared to be the "logical fruit" of the administration's Mexican policy in a speech today by Representative Mondell, reviewing the outrages against Americans since the overthrow of Madero. "By following not the policy of 'watchful waiting' but of mischievous meddling coupled with base betrayal and callous indifference to the safety of Americans has the administration lost the respect and earned the contempt of the people of Mexico."

TO REVIVE TIMBER GROWING

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, Jan. 20.—A movement for the home growing of timber has been initiated here by Lord Selbourne in order to revive a steadily declining industry. Foreign competition has within the past twenty years driven all enterprise out of the British timber trade and frightened away capital. But Lord Selbourne hopes to take advantage of a temporary revival due to the war and put the industry on a permanent footing.

NEEDN'T WAIT LONG

The Gazette says that a young and beautiful Greek girl has brought suit for $10,000 damages against a countryman because he refused to marry her after bringing her to this country. He sent her $70 and a ticket and ten days after her arrival at Reno, put her out of the house. If she gets her $10,000 damages she will have little trouble finding another soul mate.

VILLA REPORTED CAPTURED

(By Associated Press.)
EL PASO, Jan. 20.—Villa is reported captured at Hacienda San Garonimo by Carranza forces, according to a telegram from Chihuahua City. The telegram came from the same source that first reported the massacre of the American at Santa Ysabel. No other confirmation here.

BIRTH OF A SON

A baby boy was born last night to the wife of Joseph Barbary. The father is a miner employed by the Tonopah Mining company.

KING OF GREECE SAYS WAR WILL END IN "DRAW"

Constantine Gives an Interview

SHOWS INDIGNATION

RECENT ACTION OF ENTENTE ALLIES TOWARD HELLANISMS NOT CONSIDERED TO BE OF FRIENDLY SORT

(By Associated Press.)
DATELESS, Jan. 20.—Greece again is a point of signal interest on the war map, although her territory has not been the scene of hostilities. King Constantine gave the Associated Press correspondent at Athens an interview. He voiced a strong protest against the attitude of the entente powers against his country. He expressed indignation at what he termed "the high handedness of recent action by the allies toward Greece." When asked as to the probable outcome of the war, the king replied: "Draw."

THE SOLDIER'S FLANNEL

(By Associated Press.)
PARIS, Jan. 20.—High French authorities consider Constantine's complaints groundless. They asserted that the allies occupied Greek points only temporarily with the consent of the Greeks for the sake of aiding the Serbians. They said it pointed to the fact that Greece accepted allied money loans.

WILL SHORTEN TIME

(By Associated Press.)
SALONIKI, Jan. 20.—Prince Andrew, the brother of King Constantine, has as his wife the English Princess Alice of Battenberg, who has made herself the head of a homely, practical charity known as "The Soldier's Flannel." In the front room of the doll-house of a Turkish villa where Prince Andrew and his wife live at Saloniki there is such an increasing quantity of wool in packages, bales and skeins that the room begins to look like a warehouse. It is all a part of the Princess's scheme to keep the Greek soldier supplied with the flannels that he cannot buy.

SECURITY LEAGUE ATTACKS DANIELS

"If We Need a Navy at All, We Need it Now," Exclaims President Menken

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—Secretary Daniels' naval program was assailed today as weak and insufficient and the country's foreign policy attacked as having created a situation where an American citizen's life of late has "scarcely enjoyed the consideration accorded that of a turkey buzzard in the land south of us," by speakers before the national security league. "This is the time to state facts. If we need a navy at all, we need it now," said President Stanwood Menken.

SUIT FOR HUNDREDS OF MILLIONS BEGUN

(By Associated Press.)
SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 20.—Trial on merits of the first of six cases in which the United States seeks a receiver for 160,000 acres of alleged mineral land in the California oil district, valued at from one hundred to three hundred million dollars and damages of $30,000,000 from 150 defendants, including the Southern Pacific company, was begun in the federal court today. It is charged that land was obtained fraudulently as agricultural land, when in fact it was mineral land. The case will continue for months.

VIRGINIA CITY IS FACING A FAMINE

DEEP SNOW CUTS COMSTOCK OFF FROM THE REST OF THE WORLD

Their last pound of fresh meat was sold this morning by the butchers of Virginia City, and the Comstock faces a famine. There is little doubt that Gold Hill and Silver City are in even worse predicament. Not a pound of food supplies, coal or wood has been able to reach Virginia City since Friday night, according to reports telephoned thence to Reno this afternoon, says the Gazette.
The snow was six feet deep on C street at Virginia City at two o'clock this afternoon, but the sun was shining and the residents had hopes that supplies would reach them before ham and eggs reached war prices.

BANDITS IN MEXICO MURDER CARRANZISTAS

OUTLAWS DECLARE THAT ALL AMERICANS SHALL BE KILLED

(By Associated Press.)
EL PASO, Jan. 20.—At Velardena, in southwest Torreon, 120 Carranza soldiers, who surrendered, were killed by malcontents, according to a report. Arrivals said that four thousand malcontents are operating around Torreon, declaring that all Carranza adherents and Americans will be killed.

SCIENCE DEPARTMENT IS WORTH VISITING

EQUIPMENT IS COMPLETE IN EVERY NECESSARY DETAIL

A visit to the science department of the Tonopah high school will be more than worth while to anyone interested in the sciences taught in high schools and will prove interesting to all patrons of the school. The equipment is complete in every necessary detail for the work of the schools and is so much above the ordinary science equipment of high schools that it is doubtful if it can be equaled in the state. The supplies are kept in generous quantities and placed and labeled carefully so that any required item of the hundreds kept in the storeroom may be found without delay.
The selection and arrangement of equipment and supplies show the mass

FIRST SEMESTER TO CONCLUDE TOMORROW

Tomorrow will be the end of the first semester's work in the city schools and there will be some few changes in the program followed, some subjects which have been completed will be dropped and others taken up in their place, and yet the changes will be comparatively few.

In the high school solid geometry will be replaced with trigonometry. In the commercial department new subjects offered will be commercial law and commercial geography.

The eighth grade will take the state examination in history, civics and geography, and drop these subjects for book-keeping, which is required in an elementary form in the eighth grade the present year.

In the first and second grades and the kindergarten the usual mid-year promotions will take place tomorrow and the new receiving grade will begin work next Monday morning. All beginners who are now six years of age or who will be six between now and May 1st will be admitted to this new class. On account of the crowded condition of the schools it is asked that pupils who will not be six until after May 1st be kept for the class to start in September.

D. MORRIS DISCHARGED

Judge Averill made an order today in the fifth judicial district court dismissing the charge of assault with a deadly weapon, preferred against D. Morris, which was an outgrowth of the disturbance that took place on the night the Dunbar social club was opened. The order was made at the request of the district attorney, which was due to conflicting evidence at the preliminary examination.
